

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

Awareness of the dangers of workplace violence and developing specific procedures are only the first steps to developing a safe work environment. Executive Defense Technology / Safety Training Systems combines a unique training specifically designed for Human Resources. This program aids companies by teaching how to reduce the chances of becoming a victim of workplace violence, warning signs of potentially violent situations and what to do if a dangerous situation occurs.

"STAYING SAFE IN A DANGEROUS WORLD"

"The workplace is the scene of almost one million violent crimes every year", said acting BJS Director Lawerces A Greenfeld. "About 10 percent - or 100,000 - of these violent crimes in the workplace involve offenders armed with handguns." - 4/24/2006
